This year the class of '77 takes pride in dedicating their yearbook to a man long overdue for recognition.

He has given untold services to many classes in the past. He has not only been our senior class advisor but also a good friend to all of us, devoting 27 years to his school as an English teacher and counselor for many past graduates.

We would like to thank you in the only way we know, by dedicating our 1977 Reflections to you, Mr. Williams.

Editor's Message -

In our efforts to complete the 1977 Reflections, we encountered many obstacles which were very difficult to overcome; nevertheless, we have worked hard and hope that our yearbook proves to be a good Reflection of our years at Taconic Hills.

SENIORS

Here's to Taconic
Land of the sky,
Wind, trees and sun that I love,
Here the hills say that I belong,
Proud, strong and tall and free,
All hail to Taconic,
All hail to the hills,
And all we know as true,
With things of pride,
Deep down inside,
We always will remember you.

"Our best wishes and success to the class of 1977. As you step into the future you will be leaving behind the refreshing unconquerable vitality of youth and perhaps the happiest, most carefree years of your lives. Always remember what you have learned, apply it wisely on your way to the peak of your career - fulfillment. Once fulfillment has been granted, you will then step forward into the world. This is the spirit of Taconic Hills that unites the Class of Nineteen Seventy Seven."

Don't Ever Forget Me, Friend

Don't ever forget me, friend,
We've come such a long, long way.
I don't want to see our feelings end,
In me they'll always stay.

Don't ever forget the smiles we made,
And the times when we were down.
By each others side we closely stayed,
Loved having you around.

Don't ever forget all my dreams,
You know how close they are.
Yet always set so high it seems,
Hoping I would go far.

Don't ever forget the hurts we had,
Though now they're healed and gone.
And all those happy tears we shed,
When we knew that we were wrong.

Don't ever forget the love we felt,
Our hearts seemed to say it all.
So warm I thought they'd almost melt,
Yet helped me not to fall.

Don't ever forget me, friend,
As we say good-bye.
I tell you this won't be the end,
As you wipe the tears from my eyes.

Bill Lambert
